The Vale Resort Group Terms and Conditions

At the Vale Resort we want to make our terms of business as straight forward as possible. If, however, you have any questions, please speak to us before you sign.

All deposits paid towards your booking are non-refundable and non-transferable. By confirming your booking with us and paying your deposit you are agreeing to our booking terms and conditions below.

1. What happens if I cancel?

Date of Cancellation	Cancellation charges
Between 24 and 8 weeks before the event is scheduled to take place	25% of the total booking value
Between 8 and 4 weeks before the event is scheduled to take place	50% of the total booking value
Less than 4 weeks before the event is scheduled to take place	100% of the total booking value

1.1 Could the Vale Resort cancel my booking?

In the unlikely event that the Vale Resort has to cancel your booking, you'll receive all your advance payments, although the Vale will not have any liability.
However the Vale may cancel if:

- You, or we, become insolvent, or in the case of an individual, becomes subject to a bankruptcy petition.
- Any part of the hotel is closed or unavailable due to events beyond our control
- The booking, the persons associated with the booking and /or the purpose of the meeting might damage the reputation of the hotel or the company.

2. Can I change my guest, delegate numbers and group accommodation?

Of course, you can. However, if the numbers decrease significantly, cancellation charges will be applied. If you give us more than 4 weeks' notice, for events of 30 people plus, you can reduce your numbers by anything up to 10% without charge.
If you provide less than 4 weeks' notice, the contracted numbers will be charged. If numbers are reduced, the Vale Resort reserves the right to re-allocate the room to one more relevant to the size of the event.
Final numbers for meetings for 2 - 30 delegates are to be confirmed no later than 5 days prior to the event. Should numbers fall after this, full charges will apply.

3.If I don’t have a credit agreement, when do I have to pay?

Upon confirmation of your booking, you will need to provide a credit card to secure and confirm your final payment. In the unlikely event that payment is not received upon departure the credit card may be used for full payment. The only exception to this is if you have booked a wedding with us, then the minimum non-refundable deposit is £500.00. Full payment of the balance is due 14 days before the event. Credit is not available for wedding parties.

4. How do I get credit?

A 'Credit Application Form' is available on request if you are not recognized as a credit customer. Separate terms and conditions apply which can be found on the Resort's credit application form. This should be completed and returned no later than 4 weeks prior to the event date. Credit is not automatic; confirmation must be sought after completion of the 'Credit Application Form'. Full payment of the balance is due 14 days post event.

5. I've got lots of things to bring to the Resort

We can provide most equipment. However, should you wish to bring your own equipment into the Resort, you must ensure it has been tested and is safe to use. The Vale Resort accepts no liability for any equipment you bring to the property, and we ask you to comply with the rules set out in the Health & Safety at work act. For any 3rd party contractors visiting the hotel (such as entertainment, bands etc) under your instruction, you must ensure current and adequate 'Public Liability Insurance' is in place. Copies of electrical testing certificates and insurance policies must be made available on request. Should you have any queries, our team will be happy to help.

6.Guest Property

The Resort shall not be liable for any loss or damage to property owned by, or in the custody of, the Client or it's guests, employees, agents or others. The client is advised to arrange adequate insurance cover. Safe deposit boxes may be available for the Client's use. The Resort will not be liable for failure to comply with any terms or condition of this contract to the extent that such compliance is prevented, hindered or delayed by any cause beyond its control, including but not limited to fire, storm, explosion, flood, act of God, action of any government or governmental agency, shortage of materials of goods, strike or lock-out.

7. Anything else?

Just a few points:

- For certain events the Resort may charge an bond of £500.00 against the cost of possible damage to the Resort or Resort property, which would occur during the course of the event. Should any damage occur to the Resort or Resort property during your event then this deposit, or an appropriate part thereof, will be retained by the Resort on account of the cost of such damage. The Client shall be liable for any damage or loss

(and costs or expenses arising thereby) suffered by the Resort and caused by him or any guest, employee or agent of his wheresoever or howsoever arising.

- If you ask us to obtain a supplier to provide you with anything, the bill must be settled by you and not the Resort.
- It is your responsibility to ensure a supplier fully complies with all regulations, and in the case of bands, singers, discos and entertainment, the required 'Public Liability Insurance' is in place.
- Please check the details and amend accordingly if necessary. To confirm the above details are correct and that you agree with the terms and conditions please sign below and return a copy to us within 14 days.
